

drum MUSTER

Tatiara District Council farmers and wine makers no longer need to wait to recycle their empty and clean agvet chemical containers, after some recent changes to the local drum MUSTER program.

Growers can now drop off their drums off at any time during transfer station operating hours instead of twice a year.

Could would however appreciate prior notification of larger drum numbers.